Democratic State Ticket.

For Clerk of the Court of Appeals
THOS. J. HENRY,
OF MORGAN COUNTY.

For Judge of the Court of Appeals
JOS. H. LEWIS,
OF BARREN COUNTY.

For Judge of Superior Court
(FIRST DISTRICT.)
JAMES H. BOWDEN,
OF LOGAN COUNTY.

(SECOND DISTRICT.)
ADOLPHUS E. RICHARDS,
OF JEFFERSON COUNTY.

(THIRD DISTRICT.)
RICHARD REID,
OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

FOR COUNTY JAILER,
AQUILLA LONG

The half-breeds think the immortal 306 are a medal-some set.

The new Chinese Envoy, Cheng Tiao Ju, and his legation arrived last week.

Hon. Clarence U. McElroy, of Warren, has withdrawn from the race for Congress in the Third District.

The Hawesville Democrat declares for Quinsio Jim and says he can carry Hancock county in the coming race.

George Dittosays "We've cabled Arabi to fire lower." Yes, shoot 'em in the neck the blasted British like it.

The State Journal sagely remarks that Solomon was giving himself a puff when he said "It's a wise child that knows its own father."

Only two or three of our Democratic exchanges are opposing the school bill. There are some people in the world who can't see three inches from the ends of their noses.

Christian county should give Capt. Henry a majority rising up into the thousands. Let both Democrats and Republicans come down on Jacob like a thousand of brick, and give an everlasting rebuke to men who bring war issues into politics.

Col. Jacob blandly tells the Louisville Commercial that "there will be no election in August." He is pre-eminently correct. Tom Henry's majority will be far up in the fifties.

We have received the first number of the Clarksville Democrat, a seven column sheet published every Saturday by Mr. M. V. Ingram. The paper will support Bate for Governor, and will make it lively for the bolters. The Democrat will be enlarged to a 32 column sheet this week.

The Danville Tribune says there are 25 independent Democratic newspapers in Kentucky that refuse to support Henry. The statement is false and we defy the Tribune to name the 26 papers. Name 26 anti-Henry Democratic papers in Kentucky and we'll vote for Jacob. "Put up or shut up."

Capt. Jno. S. Wise, Readjuster candidate for Congressman at large and Jno. S. Crockett, Commonwealth's Attorney of Wythe county, Va., fought a bloodless duel at Christiansburg one day last week. Three rounds were fired without effect and the parties quit the field, expressing themselves satisfied. The origin of the trouble was a political difference. There were no arrests.

Madisonville wants the Congressional convention and no better place could be selected. The town has ample hotel accommodations and as Hopkins has no candidate the place could not be objectionable on the score of local influence in favor of any candidate. Let the convention be held at Madisonville.

The English attacked Arabi's army at Ramleh, where he was entrenched, and were repulsed with the loss of 46 men, one day last week. Arabi is still defiant and is strengthening his army. The British troops are being sent to Egypt and the prospects are that there will be a considerable war. The latest news is that Arabi wants to make peace.

A Last Appeal.

Next Monday the voters of the State will have an opportunity to vote or defeat the tax of two cents on the hundred dollars, to equalize the school fund giving the colored children an equal pro rata. We hope the people of this section will not permit themselves to be governed by their prejudices, but will look to that higher and nobler principle of justice that gives equal and exact rights to all citizens, and vote for the trifling increase, in order that the light of knowledge may be turned upon the dark corners of ignorance and crime in the future and rising generation of citizens. This is no time for back issues and blind prejudices. This is a progressive age and an era of advanced ideas far different from ante bellum days.

The cowardice of the last Legislature threw the onus of this question on the people. It will be voted on and the great trouble is that fanaticism will lack of knowledge and interest will defeat it and thereby bring the question in its worst features upon the people and into the courts, to the great detriment of the educational interests of the Commonwealth.

In this, our last appeal, we wish to not only counsel, but urge upon voters the necessity of voting this insignificant increase of the school tax.

There are no reasons of weight why it should not be done and we would be glad to see every vote in Christian county cast for the question. Let all Democrats, especially, bury their animosities and do the magnanimous thing towards their inveterate political enemies by voting for a measure which will to a great extent furnish them means of disabusement from the blinding chains of ignorance and Republicanism.

How to Vote.

The canvass for county offices has almost ended and the people will, in a few days, be called upon to exercise the right of suffrage. For certain reasons the Democrats have no regular ticket in the field. The Republicans have a full ticket made up regardless of race, color or previous condition of servitude. In opposition to this there is a people's ticket.

W. W. WISFIRE, is the candidate for County Judge against Judge A. V. Long, the Republican nominee. He is a Democrat and a leading member of the Hopkinsville bar. He is the prime of middle-aged manhood and has been a class student for upwards of twenty years and is therefore fully qualified, mentally, physically and by training and education to make a County Judge superior to any the county has had for years. His friends are not confined to any party, but are found in the ranks of all and if Democrats will arouse from their lethargy and give him their united support he will defeat his competitor by a good majority.

J. T. BARROW, is the people's candidate for County Clerk, against Maj. Jno. W. Breathitt, the present incumbent. His antecedents are Democratic, but in later years he has been in sympathy with the Greenback movement. He is a minister of the gospel of the Baptist denomination, is a man of ability and education and is fully competent to make a number one clerk.

ALEX. CAMPBELL, is the candidate for Sheriff. He is also a Democrat and has had considerable experience as a deputy in the Sheriff's office. He is a good man, well qualified, and is making a strong and vigorous canvass and is making it unpleasantly warm for his opponent.

COUNTY ATTORNEY. There is no opposition to the Republican candidate for County Attorney.

RABBIT DOONE, is the independent candidate for Assessor. He has always been a Democrat, but is making his race without regard to politics. He is a poor man with only one leg and needs the office, which he is well qualified to fill. He is meeting with great encouragement and his friends are confident that he will run his opponent a close race, with good chances of beating him.

AQUILLA B. LONG, is the Democratic candidate for Jailor. He is the present incumbent and is the only man on the ticket who was officially endorsed by the executive committee of the Democratic party. He has ever had the people of all parties solidly united and he is confident his opponent is a colored man named Watt, and people who have any county pride should have no difficulty in deciding between them.

NONSENSE. Will the Democrats of Christian county, like Dickens' fat boy, forever remain in a rose state?

"I wish to remark by way of parenthesis," said the school girl when she read the essay written by her father.

The Egyptians are still held in A-Beyance, and the British are working themselves into A-Pasha-n.

There is not much difference between the Khedive of Egypt, and the modern girl. One is Tewfik and the other too tickle.

A prominent candidate for Governor was kept from speaking here last week by a boil on his neck. He might have made a humorous speech.

"I don't ask you to kiss me" said Blitkins to his girl, "for it is wrong for the girls to kiss young men; however there is no harm in one maid's kissing another, so you can kiss the po-mo-nd on my moustache, if you will." And the poor maid was kissed.

The Sentinel says the Henderson woolen mills, when completed, will give employment to fifty people.

Wilson Owens has announced himself as a Republican candidate for Congress in Jno. D. White's district.

The Princeton Banner was in mourning last week on account of the death of the editor's wife.

Col. Calvin C. Morgan, a brother of Gen. Jno. H. Morgan, of Confederate Cavalry fame, died at Lexington last week.

Gen. Jno. S. Williams, sold 75 hogsheads of white Turkey tobacco in Louisville last week at an average of 21 cents per pound.

The Republican convention to nominate a candidate for Congress in the first district will meet at Paducah, Aug. 10.

Col. Van B. Young is an eastern Kentucky candidate for Lieut. Governor. He is an ex-union soldier and a man of some prominence.

Prof. A. C. Goodwin, of Charleston, Ind., has been elected Superiorintendent of the Owensboro Public School.

R. D. Lane, marshal of Augusta, was assassinated by Lyna W. Bowman on account of an old grudge. Bowman was arrested.

The merchants of Greenville are threatening to withdraw their patronage from the O. & S. W. railroad if lower freight rates are not given. They will haul goods by wagons from South Carrollton and Central City.

A shower of bugs fell in Louisville July 20. In some instances they filled the globes of the electric lights and put out the lights. They had to be shovelled off the side walk.

Jas. A. Risk killed his brother William at Georgetown, while accidentally handling a pistol. Both men were about 50 years old and lived together.

We have received the first number of the Southern Trade Guide, published at Louisville by Messrs. Rabal, Lyons and Sparks of the Bramm Moore Paper Co. It will be issued monthly.

Eugene Monday shot and killed Jos. Thomas, nine miles from Franklin, Simpson county. The parties were first cousins, and Thomas was a Sunday School Superintendent. The difficulty was about a horse.

At Augusta, a farmer, named Philip Gallenstein, drank a glass of cold spring water while overheard in a harvest field and died from the effects.

Mrs. Lucy A. Allen, wife of Capt. C. T. Allen, editor of the Princeton Banner, died July 24, after a painful and lingering illness of four months. Capt. Allen has the sympathies of his brethren of the press in his bereavement.

The convention to nominate a Democratic candidate for Congress in the third district has been called to meet at Frankfort, Aug. 24. Hall-sell of Warren, Rhea, of Logan and Love, of Muhlenberg, are the contending candidates.

A sixteen-year-old boy and a twenty-two-year-old girl applied for license to marry a few days since, and their peculiarities excited the curiosity of Princeton. The young man is the youngest person ever married in Caldwell. After procuring the license, the matrimonially-inclined twain proceeded to make the necessary purchases preparatory to commencing housekeeping on the morrow.

Five cents for pepper, ten cents each for coffee and sugar, crockery, queens ware, tin, other edibles, etc., in like proportion, was the investment. But when the bloom came to time, no half-way article would pass; oh, no! She selected one with a first class stick, and they went on their way rejoicing.—(Princeton Banner.

The fallen brave was dragged into camp and roasted alive by the teamsters.

Judging from the two items below, clipped from the same issue of the Owensboro Messenger, both of its editors must have a hand in getting up the local page.

Vacant houses are to be seen in all parts of the city now, whereas a few months ago a house or rooms could not be secured at any price.

A walk in the suburbs will convince any one that Owensboro is a growing city. New buildings are going up on every side, and a spirit of improvement seems to pervade everywhere.

Near Hanson station, a little boy named Jno. T. Branson discovered that a tree had blown across the track of the L. & N. railroad. It was a dark night and the little fellow built a fire on the track and stood at his post waving a burning brand, until the night passenger train came along and was stopped. He was rewarded by the L. & N. with a new suit of clothes, a free pass over the road and a supply of pocket change.

Mr. G. W. Gibson who does the honors behind the counter of Pye & Co., Hopkinsville, has been so attentive to business, and has sold more goods, perhaps, than any other clerk in Hopkinsville, that his employer has given him permission to spend a week in our town. He is now here, and from his actions we think in our next issue we will register a happy union of two hearts.—Elkton Register.

Hotel Project.

Col. Jas. O. Cooper, the present proprietor of the Phoenix Hotel, has about completed negotiations for the purchase of the Central Hotel, corner of Virginia and Russellville streets. He will raise the main building another story making it three stories high, build a two story cell on Russellville street and completely re-model and re-arrange the inside, making the hotel first class in every respect with about forty rooms and a comfortable capacity for over one hundred. The office will be in the corner of the hotel and the dining room will be in the ell to be built. Col. Cooper's lease of the Phoenix Hotel expires Dec. 1st, and he will begin work without delay, as soon as the trade is closed, and have the new building ready for occupancy when he gives up his present quarters. A first class hotel is Hopkinsville's long-felt need and it affords us pleasure to note that the want is to be supplied.

Death's Desires-shun.

Stephen Bacon was killed at West Fork rock quarry, between Pembroke and Trenton, in Todd county, last Saturday. Bacon was the foreman of the hands who are quarrying rock for the Henderson bridge and while at work the derrick fell and crushed him so badly that he died in an hour. Bacon lived in Washington county Ohio, where he leaves a wife and seven small children. His fellow-workmen buried him in a lonely graveyard near the place where he was killed.

Past Chancellors H. H. Abernathy and Bryan Hopper were elected at the last meeting of Evergreen Lodge No. 38 K. of P., as representatives to the Grand Lodge, which meets in Owensboro, Oct. 11th.

Some of the farmers draw their "what money" in gold and silver and have to take it home in shot-bags. A few more such crop years will make the farmers all rich and they will be too independent to speak to common town citizens.

Some one has circulated the report that the new school bill imposes a capitation tax of $4. on the colored voters. This is a lie. The bill will remove the poll tax of $1.00, which colored voters now have to pay, and place them on the same footing as white citizens.

Eq. Wallis of the Press has a new girl at his house and claims to be the happiest newspaper man in the city. Does he think he is alone in his glory? There can be no possession without paternity when "a girl" is the object.

The Chosen Friends' picnic at Montgomery, last Tuesday, was a very successful affair. Several speeches were made and the day was highly enjoyed by all in attendance. Several persons from this city attended.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McGee, of Bellevue, lost their little infant son last Saturday. This is two children they have lost in as many years. Their baby's remains were interred in the city cemetery Sunday afternoon.

A valise belonging to one of the young ladies in the Mammoth Cave excursion party, was lost at Cave City, but owing to the kindness of Mr. Brady, the baggage agent at that point, it was traced up and recovered last week.

In another column appears the prospectus of the Arkansas Traveler the new humorous paper recently started at Little Rock by O. P. Read, formerly of this State. We have seen several copies of the paper and it is one of the very best of its kind. We can procure it for our subscribers for $1.00 per annum.

Messrs. Metcalfe & Bro. recently bought the "supply car" invented and operated by Mr. H. Blumenstiel last year. Such alterations and improvements were made in it as were thought best for their purposes and they now have it running regularly and supplying at residences everything in the way of bread, groceries, vegetables, fruits and confectioneries. The enterprise of Messrs. Metcalfe & Bro., is commendable and their car is receiving a liberal patronage.

Princeton Collegiate Institute

Our attention has been called to this institute, located in the neighborhood town of Princeton in Caldwell county, of which Rev. H. H. Allen, D. D., is Principal, with a full and competent corps of teachers. It is gratifying to us and is to all public spirited citizens, to see the educational interest of our section of the State so well cared for, and see so many good colleges and institutions of various grades established in this part of the State.

The advantages offered by the Princeton Collegiate Institute are not inferior to those enjoyed in other schools hereabouts, and from the well established reputation of the principal for ability and thorough competency we are sure that parents and guardians who have children and wards to educate could send them to no better school than this. We hope to be able to record in the future that this Institute has been most liberally patronized. The principal, Rev. H. H. Allen, D. D., may be addressed at Princeton, Ky., and he will furnish all needed information to those who desire to patronize this school.

DEATHS.

Died, on the 9th of July, 1882, in Christian county, Ky., near Garrettsburg, at the residence of James T. Hives, Jr., Charles Shackelford Hives, son of James T. and Otley Hives.

Died, at the same place, on the 12th of July, Mrs. Laura Orey Hives, wife of Jas. T. Hives and daughter of Dr. Charles Shackelford, of this city.

Died, at the same place, on the 19th of July, James Walter Hives, son of Jas. T. and Laura Orey Hives.

It is said that misfortunes never come singly, but it seldom that we see except in times of epidemics, a family swept away by the hand of death in a few short days. In a home where there were five in the family circle, three were taken away in the space of ten days. The husband and a little daughter only remain and may Heaven sustain them in their hour of triple bereavement.

GARRETTSBURG.

The candidates for the various county offices spoke here on Wednesday the 19th inst. The speeches were very good, most of the speakers being gifted with fine argumentative powers.

Died, on the morning of the 25th inst., at her residence near Garrettsburg, Miss Lucy Quarles, who has long been a resident of this community. She was a victim to that fatal disease Consumption.

Mrs. and Miss Embury who have been visiting Mrs. Robinson of this neighborhood, returned to their home in Louisville last week.

Mr. Charles Anderson, of Hopkinsville, returned home a few days since after a short visit to friends and relatives near Garrettsburg.

Moonlight parties have been less frequent this Summer than last, and the moon seems waning her radiance on a "still and paleless" complexion. It may be that we have had "the leaves begin to fall" that we may be favored with several.

Wheat-threshing is about over and the farmers are now anxiously watching the fluctuating market.

The death of news admonishes me to close. More anon. T. H. M.

COMPANY D.

The above company, Lieut. Smith acting Captain left Friday night, July 14th, to go into the Cave. The march was accomplished in four hours and a half. We reached Camp Henry Waterson, our destination, at one o'clock Saturday July 15. The camp consisted of 50 tents, capable of accommodating 150 or 200 men, and was located about 200 yards northeast of the Mammoth Cave Hotel.

Notwithstanding the boys had slept none the night before, and had marched nine miles that morning, Major Crump's great love of discipline could not brook no looseness in camp, even for the first day.

Consequently, dress parade was gone to with the company, and the following orders were read before the Battalion by the Adjutant:

Reveille to sound at six o'clock A. M. Morning roll call at six and a half A. M. Breakfast immediately afterward. Company drill at nine A. M. Guard mounting at ten and a half A. M., each man to carry eight hours duty that day he was put on guard.

Dinner at one P. M. Company drill four P. M. Dress parade six and a half P. M. Supper seven. Tattoo at ten and a half P. M. at eleven.

Any one absent from roll call on drill and dress parade, without excuse, was given six hours extra duty. Any one coming in after tattoo with out the counterpane was put in the guard house for a time commensurate with the gravity of the offense.

For disrespect to officers a soldier was made to keep his tent from 6 to 10 A. M. and the guardhouse. A little dark to the boys the first three days. The blankets ordered from the State Quartermaster's department did not arrive until twelve o'clock Wednesday night. The nights were damp and cold which made tents without blankets very disagreeable. Notwithstanding all this, the novelty of the situation offset its most unpleasant features, and seldom were there any complaints heard on the part of the young soldiers. Schneider's band from Louisville arrived Tuesday and quickened and cheered the monotony of the day parade. Wednesday afternoon Company D, took arms and marched down to the hotel to receive the Hopkinsville excursionists. And never were visitors received with more hearty enthusiasm. It appeared as though the boys were glad to be relieved from the disagreeable roll call and dress parade. It appeared as though the boys were glad to be relieved from the disagreeable roll call and dress parade.

Many of our readers doubtless know that while on dress parade, the Adjutant after forming the parade turns and salutes the Major and says, "Sir the parade is formed." One of our boys, who after that trip we shall always consider the way of the town, coming into his tent one night just after tattoo, discovered that some one had purloined his last remaining blanket. Maritally executing an about face he marched to the door of his tent and with all the energy of a desperado called out, "Sir the raid is performed."

Dr. F. H. Clark of this city was made Assistant Surgeon of the Battalion. The Doc came out of his shell of sand and did some Sharp's courting while up there.

There was a mysterious epidemic in camp that never showed itself on the patient until his name was read out for guard mounting. Then it commenced his work and often its dread ravages left the subject at the point of "dras relief" so completely exhausted as to be unable to perform duty at all.

Ike Turner, the colored mariner, was hanged at Lexington Friday.

Peter May, col. waylaid and killed Jerry McDaniel near Harrodsburg. Mays has not been apprehended.

Public Speaking.

The candidates for the various county offices will speak at the following times and places:

Aug. 1st. Hopkinsville, Friday. Aug. 4th. Hopkinsville, Saturday night. Aug. 11th. All candidates for all the various offices from Superior Court Judge down are respectfully invited to attend.

The next day, Friday, the guards after listening to most speeches from the Governor and Gen. Nuckolls, were drawn up on dress parade and formally reviewed by those two gentlemen accompanied by the visiting military. That night there was another dance and the boys bade the ladies adieu.

Major Klett overtook us as we were about to shake hands with Major Klett the honest old fellow said in his peculiar German brogue "don't tell me good bye, I will not say it." "Au revoir." But said we, we break camp to-morrow morning at four o'clock. No matter said he "I'll see you again."

Next day we broke camp and started for the Junction, with the band at the head playing a quick step. And sorry were the boys to leave. They had come to love the place and had the vote been taken we believe they would have expressed a willingness to stay another week.
